

NexTier to Ring Closing Bell at the New York Stock Exchange

HOUSTON, Nov. 15, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- NexTier Oilfield Solutions Inc. (NYSE: NEX) ("NexTier" or the "Company") announced that members of its management team will ring The Closing Bell[®] this afternoon at the New York Stock Exchange to celebrate the launch of its new company name, ticker symbol and the closing of its recent merger between C&J Energy Services, Inc. ("C&J") and Keane Group, Inc. ("Keane").

C&J and Keane completed its previously announced merger on October 31, 2019, creating NexTier Oilfield Solutions Inc., an industry-leading U.S. land completions provider. NexTier's common stock began trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol "NEX" on October 31, 2019.

"We are honored to ring the closing bell, marking the culmination of our merger process and the beginning of a new legacy as NexTier," said Robert Drummond, President and Chief Executive Officer of NexTier. "I am grateful for the unwavering commitment offered by our collective team, and extend my appreciation to the many business partners that help us be successful. Our team remains focused on delivering value to all stakeholders and differentiating ourselves through our commitment to partnerships, safety, efficiency, and innovation."

The Closing Bell[®] will ring at 4:00 p.m. Eastern time and can be viewed live on the NYSE's website at www.nyse.com.
